

China-ASEAN Faculty Development Training on Modern Agricultural Technology under the background of “Belt & Road”

Theme:

Online Sharing of Agriculture Technology

Joint Cultivation on Agricultural Talents

Time: August 23rd -27th, 2021

Tool: ZOOM

Language: English

Responsible Unit:

Organized by: Guizhou University

Supported by: Foreign Affairs Office of Guizhou Province, Agricultural and Rural Department of Guizhou Province, China

Participants: experts, scholars, researchers, teachers, students and government officials in agriculture and other relative talents from China and ASEAN countries.

Content:

This programme has invited 11 agricultural experts from both China and ASEAN countries to give 11 lectures on modern agricultural knowledge, technologies, and experience of teaching and research. The programme contains: to share and popularize modern agricultural technologies in China and ASEAN countries, concerning plant protection, pesticides, plant diseases and insects prevention as well as other agricultural areas and develop agricultural faculty by sharing advanced teaching ideas, methods and techniques, experience of teacher training, team construction, and scientific research.