

Subject: Invitation to 2021 Maritime Silk Road International Conference on the Cooperation and Integration of Industry, Education, Research and Application: Sub-Forum on Ecological and Environmental Protection Cooperation

October 19, 2021

Respected Chiang Mai University,

Greetings from Secretariat of South and Southeast Asian University Network (Yunnan University), China!

In response to the 15th Conference of the Parties (COP15) to the Convention on Biological Diversity of the United Nations, held in Kunming, Yunnan in Oct. 2021, the Secretariat is hosting the Sub-forum on Ecological and Environmental Protection of the 2021 Maritime Silk Road International Conference Cooperation and Integration of Industry, Education, Research and Application on November 30, 2021 through Zoom.

As a sub-forum of the said conference supported by the Ministry of Education (China), it aims to bring together university and research institution administrators, scholars, Ph.D. students as well as entrepreneurs, encouraging idea exchanging and closer collaboration among them in fields of ecological and environment protection studies, practices and advanced talents education.

The forum will focus on the following topics:

- ❖ Conservation and Sustainable Utilization of Biodiversity
- ❖ Establishment of National Park-Based Protected Areas System
- ❖ Protection and Restoration of Degraded and Fragile Ecosystem

We hereby cordially invite experts or Ph.D. students from your university to join us online. Presentations on your collaboration experiences in the above-mentioned fields are encouraged at the panel discussion session.

Attached please find the registration form and tentative program. Please kindly send the completed registration form back to the following contact person before October 29. Were there any inquiries, please feel free to contact us.

Contact person: Ms. He Ting
