

JAPANESE GOVERNMENT (MONBUKAGAKUSHO: MEXT)
SCHOLARSHIP FOR 2022
(Research Students)

MEXT (Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science, and Technology) offers scholarships to international students who wish to study in graduate course at Japanese universities as research students under the Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship Program for 2022 as follows:

I . QUALIFICATIONS

- 1) Nationality: Applicant must have the nationality of a country which has diplomatic relations with the Japanese government and also be specified by MEXT (See Annex1). Applicant who has Japanese nationality at the time of application will not be eligible.
- 2) Age: Applicant must have been born on or after April 2, 1987.
- 3) Gender : Applicant should be female or women identified student only.
- 4) Academic Background: Applicant who is eligible for enrollment in a master's course / doctoral course at a Japanese graduate school. She must have at least 16 years academic back ground.
- 5) Major Field of Study: Applicant should apply for the field of study she majored in at university or any related field. Applicant must choose a field on which she can receive education and perform research at Ochanomizu University.
- 6) Academic grade point: Applicant who have already graduated from their latest degree program should have a final degree point* of 2.30 (out of 3.00) or above, while current student should have a grade point of 2.30 (out of 3.00) or above for her current course, and be expected to maintain the same academic standards during the course of the scholarship program.

How to calculate "academic grade point":

$$\frac{[(\text{Grade } 100-80) \text{ No. of credits} \times 3] + [(\text{Grade } 79-70) \text{ No. of credits} \times 2] + [(\text{Grade } 69-60) \text{ No. of credits} \times 1]}{\text{Total No. of registered credits.}}$$

- 7) Japanese or English Language level: Applicant must have at least Level N2 of Japanese-Language Proficiency Test (JLPT) or an English proficiency test score equivalent to B2 or above on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) scale (e.g. TOEFL iBT 72 or above, IELTS 5.5 or above).

If the applicant has completed an educational program whose primary language of instruction is Japanese or English that satisfies the entrance requirements to the Master's Program or Doctoral Program at the Graduate School of Ochanomizu University, the score above will not be needed.

- 8) Health: Applicant must be physically and mentally healthy enough to pursue study at university.
- 9) Arrival in Japan: Applicant must be able to leave for and arrive in Japan by the date specified by Ochanomizu University around the beginning of October 2022. Travel expenses will not be provided if the Applicant chooses to travel to Japan prior to the designated period.

1 0) Visa: Applicant must obtain a “Student (留学)” visa when she comes to Japan.

1 1) Non-eligibility: Applicants in the following categories are ineligible for the Japanese Government (MEXT) scholarship. They must decline the scholarship offer if they are found to fall under any one of the following criteria upon their selection.

1. An active member of the military or a civilian employed by the military at the time of arrival or at any point during the period of the Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship.

2. An applicant who is unable to travel to Japan within the period designated by MEXT or Ochanomizu University.

3. A former recipient of a Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship (including those who withdrew from the scholarship after coming to Japan) is ineligible unless he or she has had at least three years of educational or working experience since the month after completing the former scholarship period as of the beginning of the new scholarship period. This ineligibility criterion also does not apply if the formerly received scholarship is of one of the following types: (i) Japanese Studies Student (as long as the applicant has since returned to and graduated from or is expected to graduate from his or her home university), (ii) Japan-Korea Joint Government Scholarship Program for the Students in Science and Engineering, (iii) Young Leaders Program. Also, for the purpose of this clause, the MEXT Honors Scholarship does not count as a Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship.

4. An applicant who is also applying for a Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship for another AY2021 program.

5. An applicant who (i) is already enrolled in a Japanese university, institution, etc. under the "Student" visa as of the time of application, or (ii) is or plans to be enrolled in a Japanese university, institution, etc. as a self-supported international student between the time of application and the start of the scholarship period.

6. An applicant who expects to receive a scholarship from any source other than the Japanese Government (MEXT), including those from their own country's government body, at or after the beginning of the scholarship period.

7. An applicant who is "expected to graduate by the entrance date" at the time of application but then cannot provide proof of completing a degree by the designated deadline.

8. A Japanese national who has dual nationality with another country, and is not able to provide proof of relinquishing Japanese nationality by the day of arrival or enrollment as an Ochanomizu University student.

9. An applicant who is, as of the time of application, planning a long period of fieldwork or internship in a country other than Japan or a long-term leave of absence, etc.

10. One who has not planned on proceeding to the Master's Program or the Doctoral Program as a regular student at Ochanomizu University.

II. PERIOD OF SCHOLARSHIPS

Ochanomizu University will accept the grantee as a research student (non-degree) for one year and half (from October 2022 to March 2024) at the maximum, and she is expected to aim to proceed to the Master's Program or the Doctoral Program as a regular student through entrance examination by the period ends. When she proceeds, she can apply for the extension of scholarship period (the Master's Program: 2 years / the Doctoral Program: 3 years), but please note that that extension will not be granted to all those who apply for an extension.

III. SCHOLARSHIP BENEFITS

1) Monthly allowance: Under the fiscal 2021 budget, each grantee is provided monthly with 146,000 yen if she is a non-degree student. However, these amounts are subject to change depending on the annual budget of each year.

2) Traveling Costs: The grantee can obtain traveling costs from MEXT as follows.

A: Transportation to Japan: Each grantee will be provided, according to applicant itinerary and route as designated by MEXT, with an economy class plane ticket from the international airport closest to the address in the home country listed in the application form (Form 1) to Narita International Airport or Tokyo International (Haneda) Airport. Expenses such as inland transportation from her place of residence to the nearest international airport, airport tax, special taxes on overseas travel expenses within Japan will be borne by the grantee (the place of residence of the grantee shall in principle be the address stated in the application form). Plane ticket from a country other than the grantee's nationality will not be covered.

B: Transportation from Japan: The grantee who returns to her home country within the last-payment month of her scholarship will be provided, upon application, with an economy class plane ticket for a flight from Narita International Airport or Tokyo International (Haneda) Airport.

(Note) Insurance premiums for travel to/from Japan: It shall be borne by the grantee.

The airport the grantee departs from or returns to must be an airport of the country of her nationality.

3) School Fees: Fees for the entrance examination, matriculation and tuition at universities will be paid by Ochanomizu University.
