

JAPANESE GOVERNMENT (MONBUKAGAKUSHO: MEXT) SCHOLARSHIP FOR 2022

(JAPANESE STUDIES STUDENTS, NIKKENSEI)

The Japanese Government's Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (MEXT) offers scholarships for academic study in Japan to international students interested in deepening their understanding of the Japanese language, Japanese affairs and Japanese culture. The purpose of these scholarships is to promote mutual understanding and deepening friendly ties between Japan and other countries through the application of advanced knowledge regarding Japanese language and culture.

Regulations for the 2022 MEXT Scholarship Program are as follows:

1. QUALIFICATIONS

- (1) Requirement: Applicants must arrive newly in Japan from abroad for the purpose of improving their understanding of Japanese language, Japanese affairs and Japanese Culture at Japanese universities. Applicants are limited to those who are officially recommended by one of the universities overseas upon the exchange agreements that have been concluded. Applicants must return to the university enrolled at the point of application and continue their studies on Japanese language or Japanese culture after they return to their home country in August 2023.
- (2) Nationality: Applicants must have the nationality of a country that has diplomatic relations with Japan. An applicant who has Japanese nationality at the time of application is not eligible.
- (3) Age: Applicants must be born between April 2, 1992 and April 1, 2004.
- (4) Academic Background: Applicants must be undergraduate female students at non-Japanese universities majoring in fields related to Japanese language or Japanese culture at the time of arriving in and leaving Japan. They must have at least 1 year academic background of learning the Japanese language or Japanese culture at a university as of September 1, 2022.
- (5) Japanese Language Ability: Applicant must have at least Level N2 of Japanese-Language Proficiency Test (JLPT), or the equivalent.
- (6) Health: Applicants must be free from any mental or physical disabilities that would be an impediment to the pursuit of university study.
- (7) Arrival in Japan: Applicants must be able to arrive in Japan within two weeks counted from the starting day of the study course set by the university and the period set by the accepting university. (If the applicant cannot arrive in Japan during the designated period, travel expenses to Japan will not be paid. And if the applicant cannot arrive in Japan during the designated period, the applicant must resign the scholarship.)
- (8) Visa acquisition: Applicants are required to obtain a new "Student" (Ryugaku) visa when they come to Japan. Even if the applicant already has other residence status ("Permanent resident," "Long-term resident," etc.), the applicant must change it to the "Student" status and re-enter Japan. For more details, please contact the accepting university in advance. Moreover, please note that those who change their visa status to something other than "Student" after arriving in Japan will lose their qualifications to be Japanese Government Scholarship recipients from the date when they change their visa status.
- (9) Any applicant who meets any or all of the following conditions is not eligible. If identified after the start of the scholarship period, the applicant will be required to withdraw from the scholarship:

1. Those who are military personnel or military civilian employees at the time of their arrival in Japan;
2. Those who have received a Japanese Government Scholarship (Monbukagakusho scholarship) in the past;
3. Those who are currently enrolled at a Japanese university with a College Student (ryugaku) residence status; those enrolled, or scheduled to be enrolled, at a Japanese university as a privately financed international student during the period when the scholarship application was filed in the home country until prior to the start of the provision of the scholarship; However, even if the applicant is currently a privately financed international student studying in Japan, this restriction does not apply to an applicant who will certainly finish the current course before the start of the designated course at the Japanese university and will return to the home country;
4. Recipients of scholarships from institutions other than MEXT (including government institutions in their home countries) that overlap with the Japanese Government Scholarship (Prospective beneficiaries are included);
5. Recipients who make a double application for this scholarship to other universities, other embassy recommendations, and the Student Exchange Support Program provided by Japan Student Services Organization (JASSO);
6. Those who have studied the Japanese language at a university for a total period of less than one year as of September 1, 2022. Those who have studied Japanese for a total of at least one year at another university should submit without fail documents (transcript of grades at other university, etc.) that can verify that the applicant studied Japanese for a period of at least one year at the said university;
7. Holders of dual nationality at the time of application who cannot verify that they will give up Japanese nationality by the time of the arrival (or the enrollment period starts) in Japan.
8. Those who have not returned to the university enrolled at the point of application after they return to their home country in August 2023.
