

Dear students and young researchers!

As part of the BRICS Youth initiative, the HSE Faculty of Law invites undergraduate and graduate students, young legal scholars, and researchers from universities in the BRICS countries and partner countries to participate in an international online conference.

Event Title: International Conference for Young Researchers "BRICS Youth Comparative Law Issues"

Date and Time: October 22, 2026, starting at 3:00 p.m. Moscow Time (duration: 90 minutes).

Format: Online (via the <https://mts-link.ru/> platform).

Working language of the event: English.

The purpose of the conference is to promote the development of legal science and practice, as well as the exchange of knowledge and experience among young researchers from BRICS countries and the group's partner states, in order to achieve the priority goals, set forth in the organization's summit declarations.

Law students are invited to participate both as speakers and as audience members (discussants).

The thematic areas of participants' presentations are intended to reflect the BRICS agenda and current legal trends, including (but not limited to):

- private international law and dispute resolution;
- digital law and the legal regulation of technology;
- criminal law, criminal procedure, and forensic science;
- commercial law and investment;
- current issues on the agenda of BRICS countries and their partners through the lens of legal regulation (environmental protection, the development of "smart cities," the protection of family values, the labor market, social justice and protection, etc.).

Following the conference, a volume of the best articles of participants will be published in a peer-reviewed scientific journal (via scientific electronic library "Russian Science Citation Index").

Conference participants who pass the application selection process will be awarded electronic certificates, and the winners will receive commemorative diplomas.

Registration: To participate in the online conference as a speaker, you must register by 11:59 p.m. (UTC+3) on October 12, 2026. Registration to participate as an audience member is open until October 21, 2026. Registration is available at the following link: <https://pravo.hse.ru/en/polls/1199481280.html>.

* Detailed information on the requirements for abstract submission can be found in the attachment to this letter.

If you have any additional questions about the conference, please contact the Organizing Committee by email at: facultyoflaw@hse.ru. We will be glad to see all the participants at the event!

Kindest regards,
Faculty of Law
HSE University